

IN SPRUCE TIMBER

WHAT OUR BOYS ARE DOING IN GETTING MATERIALS FOR AIRPLANES

It will be remembered that eighteen men were sent from this district by the local Exemption Board July 26th to Vancouver Barracks for work in connection with spruce production for aeroplanes. The list included several young men from Glendale and nearby localities, viz.:

Frederick E. Forster of the Tropico Hotel on San Fernando road.

Leonard Owen Rhodes of 524 Grace court.

George Wellner of 327 Glendale avenue.

Edward W. Riley, 830 San Rafael street, Casa Verdugo.

James Morgan of Eagle Rock.

Robert Cabrerias of La Crescenta.

Cornelius Augustus Clark of Burbank.

Leon A. Bachman of 1006 West Ninth street.

Clyde H. Fainot of Burbank.

The big draft, of which Glendale furnished its small part, was distributed over the territory, some men being sent to one duty, others to another kind of work.

Frederick Forster's mother reports that he is doing clerical work of some sort, that he is drilling and hoping to be transferred to the infantry service.

Leon Bachman is with the Multnomah Lumber and Box Mill of Portland, where he is doing guard duty, as all these establishments which are handling contracts for the government have to be guarded by patrols. Leon writes it is very beautiful up there, that the boys receive splendid treatment, that the scenery is grand and he likes it very much. There are three or four Los Angeles boys in his camp, but no others from Glendale.

In this connection some statements of the work of the Bureau of Aircraft Production, which have been authorized by the War Department, will be of interest.

The frames of airplanes, rudders, stabilizers, fins and elevators, landing gear, engine bed, after deck and seats are made of wood and preferably of spruce because it is the toughest of soft woods for its weight and possesses tremendous shock absorbing qualities, and does not splinter when hit by a missile. About 350 pieces of spruce are required in a single airplane. Practically all of the available spruce is in the United States and along the western coast of British Columbia. The stand of Sitka spruce, which is the best airplane stock found in Washington, is estimated at 11,000,000,000 feet, but less than half of it is in dense enough stands or near enough to transportation facilities to be commercialized. The total spruce shipped during the first three months of 1918, according to government figures, was 20,000,000 feet, which was only about one-third of the amount needed by the United States and her allies.

Only about ten per cent of a good spruce log is available for airplane stock.

One of the most important features of the work of the Signal Corps in the Northwest was the organization by Col. Brice P. Disque of the Loyal Legion of Loggers. The territory of Oregon and Washington was subdivided into seven districts and a commissioned officer from the Spruce Division was detailed to establish local chapters at every camp and mill working on spruce and fir. As a result there are today something like 95,000 members, all volunteers. An eight-page bulletin is circulated and special entertainments with motion pictures are sent from camp to camp. Col. Disque was supplied with a fund of $20,000,000 with which to aid responsible operators in need of money to the extent of 30 per cent of their contracts. In the end he quadrupled the output of spruce.

By erecting the largest sawmill in the world in 45 days the Spruce Division made a distinct record. This huge cut-up mill is at Vancouver Barracks. It cost the government in the neighborhood of $200,000.

Before the war this sort of lumber was seasoned by air drying, but the great demand for spruce necessitated a kiln-drying process. This was worked out by the Forest Products Laboratory of the Forestry Service and a plant costing $350,000 was erected at Vancouver Barracks.

Today Government representatives say the production of spruce and fir is nearly up to requirements for airplane stock. The total spruce and fir shipped to June 15th, including the large amount shipped to the allies, is: spruce 52,000,000 feet; fir, 20,800,000 feet.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair except cloudy or foggy along the coast tonight and in the morning.

THE RECRUIT

LIFE IN DETENTION CAMP DEPICTED BY GORDON CLAYTON

Mrs. G. Clayton of 504 South Orange street has received the following letter from her son Gordon Clayton, now in the navy, who has recently been sent to San Pedro and is still in detention camp there:

Dear Mother:

Here I am in Goopy Camp. My program was as follows: Entered Goopy Camp about noon, registered and then had my hair clipped off. I sure hated to lose it. Then all of us new recruits lined up and marched into the mess room. We were served cafeteria style. I had lamb, potatoes, gravy, plum sauce, bread and butter and something that looked like coffee and tasted like tea. Had bought a bottle of milk so drank that.

At 2 o'clock we were lined up again and told to take our coats off and if we wore stiff collars to take them off. I couldn't imagine what was going to happen. We were marched from one end of camp to a warehouse at the other end. There we were issued a hammock, mattress, two blankets and a sea bag, also two towels. Some of the men at the warehouse were on liberty so we didn't get our uniforms. We will get them Monday. I was glad we didn't get them for we had to carry our hammocks and the rest of the stuff all the way back to the jungles (that's where we sleep) and it was heavy enough.

Fat Woods of Burbank is here and he showed me how to sling my hammock and make my bed. I smoked and loafed until four o'clock. Then I got my coat back again and we formed in line for supper. We had spaghetti, meat, bread and butter, coffee and something that must have been cake.

After supper Lyn and I went to our hammocks and played. He played his clarinet and I my banjo-uke. Quite a crowd collected and pulled us up to the mess hall where they have a piano. The bugler of the camp played the piano and we had an impromptu entertainment. One sailor yodeled, another gave several imitations of trains leaving and coming into stations (he was really good), one of the boys did a jig, I sang, Lyn gave a clarinet solo and the pianist did an Egyptian dance.

At 8:45 we went to our hammocks, where we unslashed them and undressed for bed. The jungles, where we sleep, is at the lower end of Goopy Camp. They are long open structures covered every once in a while with canvass. Our hammocks are about three feet off the ground and as close together as we can put them. Taps sounded at 9 o'clock and I was lulled to sleep by the sailors two hammocks away from me who snored in about seven different keys all night.

I woke up about 2 p. m. and found myself almost out of my hammock. The reason I didn't fall was because the hammocks are slung so close together. (Good thing.) Got up this morning at 6:30 on account of its being Sunday, washed, and at 8:20 went to breakfast. We had ham and eggs, potatoes, bread and butter, and coffee. (The sugar comes in handy.)

It is now 9:45 a. m. and I have nothing to do but eat, smoke and loaf all day long. This life so far is splendid. I feel fine; the eats are good.

Bring me some Omar cigarettes when you come down, about 4 packages. Sixty-nine new men came in from Texas this morning. Tell Roy to hurry down, and give everyone my best regards.

With oceans of love to you, I remain

Your loving son,

GORDON.

Address: Gordon Clayton, U. S. N. R. F. Care of Detention Camp, San Pedro, Cal.

HOME WEDDING

Miss Marian Lane and William C. Hollister were married Saturday morning, August 17th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Lane, 1432 Ivy street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. J. Marsh of the First Congregational Church, in the presence of the families of the bridal couple.

The home was tastefully decorated with pink carnations, lilies and orange blossoms. The bride was daintily dressed in white and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and maidenhair fern. The ceremony was performed at eleven o'clock, after which light refreshments were served and the happy couple left at once for a few days' stay at Avalon, after which they will return to Glendale for a short time and then locate in Los Angeles, where Mr. Hollister has a fine position with the Los Angeles Times.

CONSIDER NEW DRAFT BILL

MEN BETWEEN NINETEEN AND THIRTY-SIX WOULD BE CALLED FIRST UNDER NEW REGULATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, August 19.—The Senate unanimously agreed today to begin consideration of the new draft bill on Thursday. Members of the Military committee said they hoped the bill would pass before Saturday night.

Secretary Baker told the House Military committee that the government will not call the men aged eighteen into the army under the new bill until it is absolutely necessary to do so, but both Baker and Chief of Staff March emphasized the probability that these men would be called beginning next spring and that Class 1 would probably be exhausted by June.

Secretary Baker said the classification of men over 31 would be a long process and might necessitate taking men under 21 first.

He said General Crowder is now preparing regulations to divide the men into two classes, one class to include men from 19 to 36, the other men above 36. Men of 19 to 36 would be called first. Boys of eighteen would be in entirely separate class.

Answering questions, General March declared that if the eighty divisions of troops raised under the new bill are sent to France the war can be ended successfully in 1919.

He said an American force of that size could break through the German line anywhere they wished.

FROM VLADIVOSTOK

MRS. C. FROMM RECEIVES CHARACTERISTIC LETTER FROM HER SAILOR SON

Mrs. C. Fromm of 249 East Third street has received the following entertaining letter from her son, C. A. Fromm, Jr., seaman on the flagship Brooklyn. Evidently he is at Vladivostok, Siberia. The letter is dated July 5, 1918, and reads:

Dear Mother:

I have not had many letters from home lately but am always hoping for them. I don't know what's the matter with the mails, but of course we have to take what we can get and be satisfied.

I am now on deck again and am going to be examined for Coxswain next quarter and am pretty sure I can make it. I will be a petty officer then. I am going to have my picture taken Sunday, not postcard but cabinet size.

I have joined a swimming club here. It only cost a little and they have a swell joint. I am getting to be some diver. I dove off a platform at the club that is about thirty feet above the water. It looked hard at first but after I tried it was easy.

Well, I can say I saw a battle even if I wasn't in it. Interesting it surely was. We were all ready to land but did not as it was over in a couple of hours. I saw a couple of buildings that were the main point of fire and they sure were shot up, believe me. I would like to get into a battle just to see how it feels to know you are being shot at. That sounds foolish, I know, but I want to just the same and maybe I'll get a chance yet, who knows?

The second division had a race with the third division in whale boats. You can either single or double-bank them, and at the start it was understood that we were to pull double-banked, that is, with twelve men pulling two to a thwart. (Continued on Page 4)

NEW ARRIVALS FROM THE EAST

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Goudie and their two daughters, Clara and Grace Goudie, of 1558 Maple avenue, entertained their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Goudie of Rochelle, Illinois, with a picnic dinner at Griffith Park Saturday. They came to California recently and have fallen desperately in love with it. They are touring Southern California to spy out the land and decide where they want to locate. Glendale looks pretty good to them. They report that more relatives are coming out this fall, one of them a big moving picture producer. They say there is a disposition in the east among all who can afford to do so to come to the coast to escape the cold winters and the discomforts of fuel shortage.

HOME ON FURLOUGH

WILMOT MCINTYRE IN IMPORTANT BRANCH OF SERVICE HOME ON LEAVE

Private Wilmot J. McIntyre, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. McIntyre of 315 Cedar street, arrived Saturday on a thirty-day medical furlough granted him for recuperation from injuries he received recently in the hazardous war work in which he is engaged in the Chemical Warfare Service of the U. S. A. in Michigan. He is at a plant where poisonous gases are manufactured for war use. In the course of his work recently, when everything was supposed to be perfectly safe there was an escape of gas from which all the men in his group were burned more or less severely. All wore gas masks so their faces were protected, but they did not have on the rubber suits which completely insulate their bodies. Private McIntyre was in the hospital for six weeks and considers that he had a narrow escape though he declares the service is no more hazardous than it would be on the front and he is deeply interested in his work. Unless factories are established "over there," it will probably keep him in this country. He is hoping that will happen, however, as he would like to be sent abroad. He is greatly enjoying his furlough, but says he will be ready to go back when his leave is up.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

On Friday afternoon of last week Mrs. Geo. Adams of Ivy street entertained in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Geo. Fish. Those invited were Mrs. Geo. Fish, Mrs. M. J. Miner, Mrs. S. L. Williams, Mrs. W. J. Marsh and Mrs. L. I. Goldthwaite from Glendale, Miss L. V. Learned, Mrs. Laubach and Miss Marian Adams from Los Angeles. Mrs. Adams was assisted in serving ice cream and cake by Mrs. Laubach and little Marian Adams. Each guest left a handkerchief with Mrs. Fish as a remembrance of the day.

DEATH OF HAZEL ROBINSON

Marion Hazel Robinson, only child and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Robinson of 1312 Colorado boulevard, passed away Saturday, August 17th, 1918, at the age of 28 years. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson came to Glendale about four years ago in the hope of restoring their daughter's health, which was frail.

Funeral services will be held at the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking Company Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with committal at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

CAPTAIN FRANK STRETTON WOUNDED

Henry Henning of 1021 West Elk street has been advised that his nephew, Captain Frank Stretton, has been slightly wounded in service on the front "over there." The Captain lived with his uncle in Glendale for about three years prior to his enlistment which was made in his old home, Chicago, where he was a member of the First Illinois National Guard Cavalry, from which he resigned to enlist in the U. S. Cavalry when the First was changed to an artillery regiment. He is a son of the late Matthew Stretton and his mother resides in Oak Park, Illinois. During his residence here he made quite a circle of friends who will learn with concern of his injury.

slightly wounded at the battle of Jonesboro and the regiment, after three years' service, was mustered out. Commander Barrett then re-enlisted in the Eighth United States Volunteers and was sent to Washington, D. C. He was on guard at the trial of the assassins of Lincoln and at the trial of Capt. Wirtz of Andersonville prison notoriety. He joined the G. A. R. soon after its organization and has been an active member ever since.

He has been prominent in the Southern California Veterans' Association and in other organizations of veterans for years.

At the closing meeting of the encampment, which all agree was the best one ever held by the association, the veterans all joined hands and formed a large circle around the big hall, joining in the song, "God Be with You till We Meet Again." The assembly was then dismissed with prayer by the newly elected Chaplain, C. R. Norton, also of Glendale, who has been given that honor on several occasions.

Commander Barrett left Friday evening on the Veterans' special to attend the National Encampment at Portland, Oregon.

T. M. BARRETT

Glendale and N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., both shared in the honors bestowed upon Comrade T. M. Barrett at the closing meeting of the annual encampment of the Southern California Veterans association Thursday, when he was elected head of the association for the coming year.

Comrade Barrett has long been a respected resident of Glendale, enjoying the homage we delight to pay to those who fought for the Union and having held various offices in the local Post, where his ability as a leader and a counsellor were manifest.

His war record leaves nothing to be desired. He enlisted in the first regiment to leave Wisconsin to fight for the Union in 1861. He had a long career in the army, being in the battles at Perryville, Ky., Stone River, Murphysboro, Missionary Ridge and the siege of Atlanta. He was

DUTY OF EVERY CITIZEN

It is the duty of every voter to inquire into the fitness of candidates for the various offices they seek. This inquiry should be made in a courteous manner and in the spirit of fairness. In the past ten or twenty years there have been men at Washington and Sacramento who have in some instances failed to represent the wishes of their constituents and some of these men have been found lacking in ability. It is therefore up to the voters to have these office holders replaced by more able men.

The campaign for nominating Congressmen and Assemblymen is now on and August 27 is the date when every voter will have an opportunity to vote for his favorite candidate.

The duty imposed upon the voter is an important one and if it is carried out intelligently it means every voter must become familiar with the qualifications of those seeking office.

Voters are to blame for what has gone wrong at law-making headquarters in years past and voters will be to blame for what goes wrong in legislative halls in years to come.

Mr. Citizen, do not hesitate to make inquiries about the qualifications of those who ask your franchise. Many men are good men but they are not qualified to participate in making the laws of our nation and state. Now is the time to speak out and speak out fearlessly for the good of your country.

THE CANDIDATES' PROMISES

Now is the time when candidates are making promises and, by the way, candidates are being required to run a pretty severe gauntlet. They meet all classes of people, people who look at questions from different angles, and it is indeed a difficult matter to satisfy every voter as to platform principles.

One of the questions that is worrying some of the candidates is the charge made by the members of the Betterment of Public Service league that state taxes are unnecessarily high. The anti-league people say, "Why worry? These taxes are paid by the corporations and big interests and if the taxes are lowered the common people will not get the benefit as the saving will remain in the pockets and the vaults of the very wealthy."

The manufacturers and corporations who are paying the state taxes now put forth the claim that the unnecessary advances in state taxes are becoming a burden and tend to cripple business. Men will not invest in stocks when the concerns selling these stocks are taxed to death and men who are now stockholders are slow to advocate improvements when every dollar spent for improvement means increased taxation. Every well-regulated business corporation carefully computes the item of taxes as a liability and the higher the taxes, the greater the expense of doing business and the greater the charge to the public for the output of the product sold by the corporation. The buyer and user of all commodities and utilities pay the taxes in the end.

If there are unnecessary commissions in the state of California cut them out for now is the time to conserve in every way possible. The men who are holding unnecessary jobs should have their activities diverted into war-winning channels.

FINANCING THE WAR

The attention of owners of Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps is called to the following. They are financing the work:

On one day in June last approximately 27,000,000 cartridges of various descriptions were produced in the United States manufacturing plants for the United States government.

The average daily production of United States army rifles was broken in the week ending June 29, an average of 10,142 rifles a day of a modified Enfield and Springfield type being maintained. In addition spare parts equivalent to several thousand rifles and several thousand Russian rifles were manufactured.

The Ordnance department has produced 2,014,815,584 cartridges, 1,886,769 rifles and 82,540 machine guns since the United States entered the war. The daily output of cartridges is now 15,000,000.

STATUS OF STUDENTS ENLISTED IN STUDENTS' ARMY TRAINING CORPS

A student enlisted in the Student's Army Training Corps is in the military service of the United States. Because he does not receive pay he is classed as on inactive service but in a National emergency the president may call him at any time to active service. He is called to active service each summer when he attends camp for six weeks and receives the pay of a private.

His relation to the draft is as follows:

Any student so enlisted, though in the military service of the United States is technically on inactive duty and therefore must register after he has reached the draft age and upon notice by the president. Upon stating on his questionnaire that he is already in the military service of the United States, he will be placed automatically by his local draft board in class V-D, as provided by the selective service regulations. The draft board will not call him for induction as long as he remains a member of of the Students' Army Training Corps.

In order that the college student may not even appear to enjoy special privileges, it is agreed, however, that when the day arrives on which according to his order number he would have been drafted, had he not already volunteered, the fact is reported to the president of the college, who in turn reports it to the adjutant general. This of the college, who in turn reports it to the adjutant general. This college and the commanding officer will then report to the chairman of the committee on education and special training of the war department, for what form of military service the individual is in their judgment best qualified. They will recommend either that the student should continue his studies to prepare for work in medicine, engineering, chemistry, psychology, economics, etc or that he should go at once to an officers' training camp to prepare for an officer's commission in the infantry, artillery, etc. or that he be assigned to work in the ordnance, quartermaster or other staff corps or sent immediately to a division at one of the camps. Lieut. Col. Rees, commander of the entire Students' Corps has authority to dispose his men in the way best suited to meet the emergencies of the national and military situation at the time. The presumption is that, for the next year, the largest proportion of the student body reaching twenty-one years will be required to supply a large part of the officers needed for the national army. It is understood that at least four or five times as many officers will be required as the total number of students who will graduate from all American colleges and universities. Enlistment in the Students' Army Training Corps, therefore, while it does not hold out and promise of an officers' commission, is at the present time the plainest road leading in that direction.

The student who shows no ability for special service in his college and military work will be ordered into service as a private when his day of reckoning comes. Enlistment is for the duration of the war. If, however, the student fails to improve his college opportunities, he may be dismissed from college by action of the college authorities and discharged from military service by the military authorities. He would then be subject to the operation of the draft. His enlistment may be cancelled for other sufficient causes such as sickness, lack of funds, etc. upon recommendation of the president of the college and the military officer in command at the college.

Opportunity will be given for the enlisted student, who so elects, to transfer from army to navy, and vice versa, and to be assigned to active service in one of the various corps of the army upon recommendation of the college president and the proper military authority.

Regular uniforms, including hats, shoes and overcoats will be furnished all members of the Students' Army Training corps by the government.

Should Congress lower the age of liability to immediate military service, men of the new ages not already enlisted may find difficulty in entering the service otherwise than through the draft boards. In view of this possibility all men expecting to enlist at all in the Students' Army Training Corps would do well to enter promptly.

PREPARATION

For the past few years Americans have been talking about the wonderful efficiency of Germany and bemoaning their own inefficiency, reproaching themselves for not having patterned after the German example. What it has taken Germany forty years to do, what has for forty years been the life of Germany, the one thought on which her people have centered, the idea around which all Germany has revolved, America will have done in two years. That may seem an exaggerated statement but it is nevertheless true. A year hence the United States will, if necessary, have a larger army in the field than Germany had at the beginning of the war. A year hence the American navy will be more powerful than that of Germany. A year hence the guns, ammunition, and airplanes manufactured by the United States in the past two years of the war will exceed the material with which Germany entered the war.

GLENDALE FISHERMEN ACHIEVE RENOWN

A party of Glendallians who had been sojourning at Balboa returned Thursday, glorified by the great reputations achieved as fishermen by some of the party, which included Mrs. E. D. Yard and son Waldo, of 127 North Maryland avenue, Mrs. Minne Patterson and daughter Emma of 1550 Riverside drive, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Jones of 1543 West Seventh street. During their stay Mr. and Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Patterson secured a launch and went deep-sea fishing. Mr. Jones is an enthusiast with rod and reel and Mrs. Patterson is also an expert who acquired her skill in fishing excursions on the Atlantic with her husband. Between them they landed five 20-pound Skip Jacks and Yellow Tails, two of which Mrs. Patterson caught, landing them herself without assistance, though she had to skillfully play them for twenty minutes before drawing them in. They also caught two bass and five mackerel. It was one of the biggest catches that has been made at Balboa in a long time, and they were the objects of much attention and envy. Besides having all the fish they could eat themselves they were able to give to all their friends there and send some home. Mrs. Yard, in describing the dinner they enjoyed when the fishers came home and the freshly caught fish were put into a spider and fried, declares she never knew how good fish could be, that they were ahead of anything she ever tasted before.

Travelers in a hurry to locate the schedules of the trains they are about to take will hereafter not have to search through the familiar thirty-two page folders. In place of a voluminous time-table such as was used under private control, there will be issued to the public monthly a four-page condensed folder showing the principal through trains and six four-page district folders, separately covering various territories. This change will not only furnish travelers with the information they desire in concise and convenient form, but will also effect an economy in printing and paper.

BAD LUCK

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Douglas, of 140 West Garfield avenue (Tenth street), were cruelly disappointed in a camping trip they undertook Saturday. They left by auto for Ventura county and when almost there discovered they had lost their camping outfit, which had been strapped on the rear of the machine. A man who had been following them all the way on a motor cycle declared he had seen nothing of it but they knew it had been in place when they examined it fifteen miles back. They retraced their way for that distance but could find no trace of it and so had to return to their home.

He is to report for service next Wednesday, August 21st, in Los Angeles, for orders. His partner, F. J. Henry of this city, will miss him greatly, but is patriotic enough not to put a stone in the way of his loyal business associate and will do his best to keep the business up to the top notch during the absence of Mr. Brown.

The food sale which was held Saturday afternoon at the Tropico Groceries at Brand and Cypress for the benefit of the war fund for local soldiers and sailors, yielded $27. The sale was in charge of Mrs. Jack Hammond, and Mrs. Charles White, who had accumulated an excellent stock in trade. Practically everything was sold. Mrs. Chauncey K. FUNERAL OF MRS. G. W. SANFORD

Very largely attended were the funeral services over the body of Mrs. G. W. Sanford, whose sudden passing Thursday morning, August 15th, shocked the community. The regular Christian Science service was conducted at the Pulliam Undertaking Parlors Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Mrs. Emily Smalley, reader.

At Rosedale Cemetery, where interment took place, officers of the Woman's Relief Corps of N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., of which Mrs. Sanford had been a prominent and much beloved member, took charge of the service, those participating being: Mrs. Louise Purnell, president, Mary Milligan, Senior Vice-President, Margaret Hibbert, Junior Vice-President, Anna Burns, Chaplain, and the four Color Bearers, Jennie Phillips, Ada Denny, Mayme Pollock, and Winona Crawford. The floral tributes brought by friends of Mrs. Sanford were wonderful in their profusion and beauty. Mrs. Sanford was one of the Color Bearers of the Corps. She was always in attendance at the Corps meetings and will be greatly missed by her fellow members.

FOR EASTERN GUESTS

Some of the residents of Riverdale drive have been enjoying delightful picnic excursions of late. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Farlander are entertaining Miss Gifford of Boston and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Chase have been showing the country to their house guest, Miss Elizabeth Robinson of Minnesota, who is now in Long Beach. Tuesday the two families united in a trip up the valley, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Yost and family. They picnicked at Newhall and then drove around the valley, visited the San Fernando Mission, and came home through San Fernando, Lankershim and Van Nuys. Wednesday the Farlander and Chase families and their guests drove to Long Beach by way of San Gabriel, where they visited the Mission. They took the Signal Hill route, from which they caught their first fine view of the Pacific and of Catalina, seemingly in the near distance. Sunday a sunrise breakfast was given by Mr. and Mrs. Farlander at Griffith Park in honor of Miss Gifford. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Chase and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yost and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rogers of Buffalo, New York (sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Yost), Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Packer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Packer.

AT THE M. E. CHURCH

The pastor, B. D. Snudden, is employing his vacation period in taking an intensive Y. M. C. A. course to fit him for his proposed work among the boys in France. The committee on pulpit supply provided two able speakers for yesterday's services. Prof. Roy Malcolm addressed the morning congregation from this important topic, "America's Opportunity and Responsibility," showing its relation to present conditions and especially after the war. Among the problems mentioned were the industrial, educational, immigration and the Mexican problem. The responsibility near at hand and individual was the need of greater interest in the public welfare, especially the importance of registering and voting at primaries and elections.

In the evening Dr. Edward Soper, Professor in Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J., and son of our fellow townsman, Rev. Julius Soper, gave an able and instructive sermon from the memorable words of the Apostle Paul, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith," an address calculated to make better citizens and stronger citizens. From here Dr. Soper goes to the Orient to study present conditions with a view to improving the missionary work in those great countries.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Anderson of 409 Cedar street and their three daughters have leased their home to Mr. and Mrs. Jaeger and family. The Andersons have gone to Ocean Park, where they expect to spend several weeks.

FRANK L. MUHEMAN, MEMBER

MY WORK IN DRY CAMPAIGN

Editor Glendale Evening News:

The question has been raised by some of your readers as to what, if anything, I did in the "dry campaign" here two years ago, and I wish to let them know through your columns.

I assisted in the circulating of both petitions; was a member of the general dry committee of Glendale and represented the First Methodist Church on that committee; attended every meeting of the committee, at the Sanitarium, and Mrs. Ruby Smart was chairman and J. N. McGillis secretary of the committee. I took an active part in the canvassing of the town to round up the dry votes; was on the Banner Committee for the great street parade in Los Angeles and got all the banners made that were carried in that parade by our men, and I was one of the marchers.

At the election I was watcher all day from opening to closing of the polls, at the voting place, corner of Colorado boulevard and Glendale avenue.

I also attended every one of those great Monday night rallies at First M. E. church in Los Angeles and assisted in the planning of the work that was carried out.

Four years ago I was also in the work from the beginning to the close of the "dry campaign." For the past 25 years I have not lost an opportunity to work and vote for the cause of prohibition of the liquor traffic, and in this Primary Election for the Assembly I am the only registered Prohibitionist whose name will appear on the ballots.

Y. P. B. CONVENTION

Active workers in the Y. P. B. in this city will make up a party to attend a Y. P. B. convention which is to be held Thursday and Friday evenings at the University Methodist church in Los Angeles. Miss Marie Brehm, a noted temperance lecturer who is being sent out by the Presbyterian Board, will make the address Thursday night and there will be a pageant and the dedication of a service flag Friday night. Both programs will be fine. The Glendale delegation will include Emma and Helen Esterly, Frances Gauntlett, Faith Tarling, Hazel Walters, Evangeline Quackenbush, Vivian Engle, Fred and Alfred Bowman, Ruth Palmer, Miss Barrett, who is a county officer, Mrs. G. H. Rowe, director of the local branch, Miss Nellie Rowe. Nearly all these young people are on the program or in the pageant. Probably many more will go. The sessions are expected to be very interesting and profitable and all young people, whether members of the Y. P. B. or not, are invited.

A BABY'S SMILE

By F. Lee Chauvan
In the God-light of a baby's smile
There is to me,
A vision of the life elysian
I've prayed to see.

In the God-light of a baby's smile
I sing my heart,
To touch of key in a melody
Of purest art.

My numbers float in the stream of light
Of a smile divine;
The music true of a little coo
Blendeth with mine.

I hold your dimpled hands, my pride,
And in sweet glee,
Count your fingers pink, my heart's own link—
You laugh with me.

In your laugh is purest note, my bard,
In verse of cheer;
It tells in voice of your soul's rejoice
That Heav'n is near.

— to continue Hiram W. Johnson's Policies

(FROM ROLPH'S PLATFORM)

"If elected Governor I shall preserve and carry forward all the great humanitarian, constructive, progressive work of Governor Hiram W. Johnson's administration. It was Hiram W. Johnson's courage and vision that brought about the new order of things in California.

"I think that my career as mayor of San Francisco demonstrates my will and my ability to maintain the rights of the plain people. In my admiration for the accomplishments of Governor Johnson's administration, I include especially the work of those great boards and commissions such as the Railroad Commission, the Industrial Accident Commission, the State Board of Control and the Corporation Commissioner, whose jurisdiction, whose independence and whose character must be protected against open or covert attack.

"I shall, if elected, be on my guard that the efficiency of those boards and commissions for the public service shall not be impaired under any pretense. The men and women who stood so loyally by Hiram W. Johnson need have no fear in leaving his work in my care. Of course, if economy and efficiency can be served by consolidating any of the commissions, I shall approve such consolidation; but in taking such a step I shall be guided by a spirit of fidelity to the progressive ideas which those boards and commissions represent."

Rolph has the resolute courage to act and the well-balanced ability to act effectively.

CHILDREN'S WELFARE MEETING

By Mrs. Ruby Smart

Mrs. Geo. Lemon, Vice-President of the City W. C. T. U., entertained the local Union in her pleasant home, 119 East Broadway, last Friday afternoon. The subject of the meeting was "Children's Welfare," according to recommendation of President Wilson that this be observed as "Children's Year," saying that "Next to the duty of doing everything possible for the soldiers at the front, there can be no more patriotic duty than to protect the children who constitute one third of the population."

The president, Mrs. Smart, stated that the W. C. T. U. is in hearty accord and sympathy with this movement and ready to co-operate in every way. That the welfare of the child was a prime object of the organization at its beginning and through the years has been promoted through the departments of our work, Health and Heredity, Physical Education, Industrial Education and Anti-Child Labor, Kindergarten, White Ribbon Recruits and prominently through Scientific Temperance in the public schools, which teaches the effect of alcohol and narcotics on the human system, ever bearing in mind that to cure is a challenge to the future, to prevent is an opportunity for the present.

The children's special branch, called the Loyal Temperance Legion, now numbers about 500,000 throughout the nation. Members of the local unit under the lead of the superintendent, Mrs. A. M. Brooks, gave a short, pleasing program.

Recitations were given by the Misses Hilda and Mary Brooks, Esther and Gladys Jones, Louise Daugherty and wee Helen. Miss Ruth Morton sang very sweetly "The Belgian Rose" and responded with an encore, "When Peace Comes." Mrs. O. S. Palmer read a very finely prepared paper on "Children's Welfare" as it is now under discussion in its special phases, of "Better Babies," etc.

The committee announced the picnic for August 30th at Echo Park. Everybody bring a basket of lunch such as they please, plate, cup, knife and fork, spoon and your own sugar (you know why). Coffee will be furnished. Leave Glendale on the 10 o'clock car. Return at your own pleasure.

VERY GRATIFYING

Addressing some public school boys recently on the subject of tact, the archdeacon of London remarked that even the church can not invariably be depended upon to say the appropriate word. For instance, he continued, there was once a certain vicar who had long been eager to see an extension of the parish burying ground. At length his wish was gratified.

Soon after the opening he felt called upon to speak a few words of condolence to a widower who was setting out tributes of flowers.

"Good afternoon, my dear sir," said the vicar, approaching breezily. "Our new cemetery," he went on, "seems to be filling up nicely."—The Argonaut.

But they wouldn't pull the race that way; they wanted to pull single-banked, which is with only six men. You can see for yourself that would make it a lot harder for the crew that won, but we raced them any way just to show them we were game, and we beat them by four boat lengths. They sure were sore because we beat them so easy. I pulled too and was just about all in at the finish but soon got my wind again.

Yesterday was the Fourth of July here and I am enclosing a menu of our dinner. You know sometimes I feel sorry for the people in the States who have meatless, wheatless days while we have some kind of meat every meal, and bread. You can see from the menu that we had all we wanted. Regular days we have about half that many items, but we have all we want at that. As soon as I can gather some more news I will write again.

Your sailor son,

The menu which was enclosed was printed on a white folder in blue, with red borders. It bore the following inscription:

On the inside page was the following verse:

My chicken, 'tis of thee,
Sweet bird of Liberty,
Of thee I sing;
I like thy neck and wings,
Back, legs and other things,
My heart in rapture sings
When I eat of thee.

On the third page was the menu, as follows:

Roast Spring Chicken
Liberty Dressing Cream Sauce

Asparagus Tips with Mayonnaise

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS AID ALL IN SERVICE

Christian Science camp welfare work is now being carried on in forty-five army and navy camps in the United States under direction of the Christian Science War Relief and Camp Welfare Committee of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. There are at present about seventy men and fifteen women engaged in this work, the women serving mainly as welfare room attendants.

Conducted at first independently, the camp welfare work has been merged with the war relief work which the Christian Scientists were doing in foreign countries before the United States entered the war. For both these purposes about one million dollars have been raised.

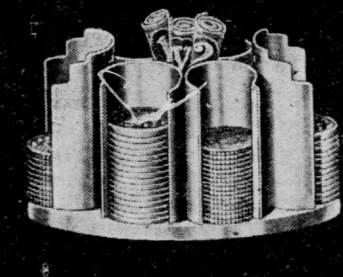

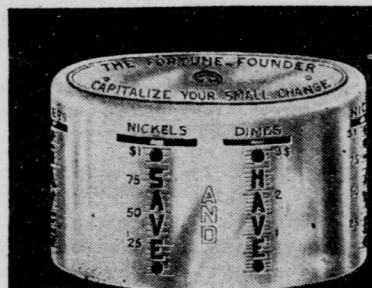

The aim of the Christian Science camp workers is to be as helpful as possible to all the men in the camps, whether or not they are Christian Scientists, and particularly to give assistance which may not be available at the time or place through any of the other camp welfare agencies. A feature of this phase of the work is an arrangement for keeping soldiers and sailors in close touch with their relatives.

Co-operating with the committee in Boston, there is a Christian Science camp welfare committee in each state. The committee in the home state of a soldier or sailor co-operates by mail and telegraph with the committee of the state in which he is camped or stationed to form a direct and constant link between the soldier or sailor and his relatives. Thereby the relatives are quickly made acquainted with needs of their boy in the service, and he is provided with an avenue of quick communication with his home.

This linking of home and camp, combined with the personal attention of the Christian Science workers in the camps, has frequently been the means of changing a soldier's outlook from one of gloom to one of joy, and not infrequently it has proved to be the means of relieving relatives of financial embarrassment, the committee in the home state making loans for use by the relatives until their boy in camp should be prepared to forward money to them.

The net result, for which the Christian Science committees and camp workers have received many commendations, has been a noticeable raising of the morale of many men in the service and the development of a better feeling at home regarding the participation of their boys in the service.

The camp workers say there is an increased willingness among the commanding officers and surgeons to allow Christian Science treatment for those men who ask for it, and many Christian Science healings have been recorded. Recently, two requests for Christian Science services in hospital wards were received by camp workers from medical nurses who had observed the beneficial effects of Christian Science treatment.

In or near numerous camps, the Christian Science Committees have erected substantial buildings, with quiet places for reading and writing, and other buildings are in course of construction. A light touring car has been added to the equipment of the Christian Science camp workers at each camp to be used wherever and whenever possible in assisting the men.

JUDGE HOUSER ENDORSED

Whatever may be said or thought by the general public regarding the advisability or inadvisability of the endorsement of certain judicial candidates by the Clean Government League and by the Citizenship and Temperance Department of the Christian Endeavor, the fact can not be gainsaid that the endorsement by those bodies of the candidacy of Judge Frederick W. Hauser for reelection was well merited. Judge Houser is no politician; he has not sought publicity in any form during his term in office, nor has he ever attempted to curry favors from any source. His demeanor on the bench has been characterized by a calm, careful, painstaking endeavor to arrive at just conclusions, irrespective of persons or personal results. He has made a mark for himself as a judicial officer, and his services should be retained. 296t1

CAMOUFLAGE

Mrs. Styles—You have a wonderful memory for dress, dear.

Mr. Styles—Well, I've seen a lot of it.

"You always seem to remember what I have worn. Do you recall what I had on the night you proposed marriage to me?"

"Why, yes; you had a sort of a foolish look on your face."

HAD HIS MEASURE

A rather jovial person sauntered into an Irishman's butcher shop and smiled to himself as he thought how he was going to have a little joke at the butchers expense.

When his turn came, he said: "Pat, can you supply me with a yard of pork?"

Pat turned to an assistant and without batting an eye, said: "Give this gentleman three pig's feet and hurry up about it."—Ex.

POOR BEAST

"Hello, Miss Winsome, what brings you out so early in the day?"

"Oh, I've just been to the photographer's with Fido" (the pet dog she carried in her arms), "and we have had our portraits taken together. Beauty and the beast, you know, Mr. Johnson—with a saucy little laugh.

"And what a little beauty he is, to be sure!" replied Mr. Johnson, inadvertently, as he tenderly stroked poor Fido's head and pulled his ears.—Ex.

CANADIAN SOCIETY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The annual picnic of the Canadian Society of Southern California will be held on Saturday, August 24th, at Echo Park in Los Angeles. These picnics have come to be a great event for the many former Canadians residing in our midst, and the attendance is always very large and enthusiasm runs high. This year there will be many speakers of note, including several of the returned veterans who will tell of their experiences "over there." Games and races will be held and prizes awarded the various winners. A basket lunch and coffee will be served, and in the evening a dance will be held in the club house. All former Canadians and their friends should lay aside their cares for this one day of the year and by their presence make the affair the grand success it has been in former years.

DOCTOR'S ORDERS

"Why do you use such a long cigar holder?" asked Smith.

"The doctor told me to keep away from tobacco," replied Jones.—Ex.
